Dr. Ritu Verma

NFCA is proud to honor Dr. Ritu Verma, Section Chief, Gastroenterology at The Children's Hospital of Philadelphia. Through her work at The Center for Celiac Disease, Dr. Verma has cared for thousands of children with celiac disease, promoting quality care and positive outcomes for the most vulnerable among us. Dr. Verma was educated at the University of Zambia and completed her internship and residency at New York University Medical Center, New York City. Her fellowship was completed at The Children's Hospital of Philadelphia where she was appointed an attending physician in 1992. Dr. Verma lives in southern New Jersey with her husband and three children.
